

FULTON COUNTY PROCESSING, LTD.

A Heidtman Steel Company

June 1, 2022

Heidtman Steel Products, Inc., a 1/3 owner of Fulton County Processing, Ltd. since January 1, 2006, has acquired the remaining 2/3 ownership interest of Fulton County Processing, Ltd. effective June 1, 2022 and will operate as Fulton County Processing, Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Heidtman Steel Products, Inc.

Fulton County Processing, Ltd., founded in 2001 and ISO registered, operates a toll coil processing center in Delta, Ohio, including a .500 x 72.00" pickle line and four slitters ranging from .025 to .500 x 72.00". <https://www.fcpltd.com>

About Heidtman Steel Products, Inc.

Heidtman Steel has over 65-years of service, selling over 800,000 tons of flat rolled steel products and processing over 3-million tons annually. They are IATF / ISO certified. With a legacy of cutting-edge innovation and unparalleled commitment to its customers, Heidtman Steel has an entrepreneurial, can-do attitude that only a family-owned company can provide. <https://www.heidtman.com>